The child support obligee shall obtain health care coverage (private health insurance coverage or public health care plan) for the child(ren) not later than thirty (30) days after it becomes available at a reasonable cost, and shall inform the _____ County Child Support Enforcement Agency (CSEA) when health care coverage for the child(ren) has been obtained.

If private health insurance coverage becomes available to the child support obligor at a reasonable cost, the child support obligor shall inform the _____ County Child Support Enforcement Agency (CSEA) and may seek a modification of health care coverage from the Court with respect to a Court child support order, or from the agency with respect to an administrative support order.

B. ☐ Private Health Insurance Coverage IS available for the minor child(ren).

- ☐ Plaintiff/Petitioner 1 has private health insurance coverage for the minor child(ren);
- ☐ Defendant/Petitioner 2 has private health insurance coverage for the minor child(ren); or
- ☐ Both parents have private health insurance coverage available for the minor child(ren).

1. Accessibility of Private Health Insurance Coverage.

- ☐ The Court permits primary care services farther than thirty (30) miles of the child(ren)'s residence because residents in the geographic area customarily travel farther distances.
- ☐ Primary care services are accessible by public transportation because public transportation is the child support obligee's only source of transportation.

2. Reasonableness of Cost of Private Health Insurance Coverage.

- ☐ Both parents agree that ☐ Plaintiff/Petitioner 1 ☐ Defendant/Petitioner 2 or ☐ Both parents shall obtain or maintain private health insurance coverage, the cost of which exceeds the Health Insurance Maximum for that parent.

– OR –

- ☐ Plaintiff/Petitioner 1 ☐ Defendant/Petitioner 2 has requested to obtain or maintain private health insurance coverage, the cost of which exceeds the Health Insurance Maximum for that parent.

– OR –

- ☐ It is in the best interest of the child(ren) for ☐ Plaintiff/Petitioner 1 ☐ Defendant/Petitioner 2 to obtain or maintain private health insurance coverage for the child(ren) even though the total cost of private health insurance coverage exceeds that parent's Health Insurance Maximum. The cost of private health insurance coverage will not impose an undue financial burden because:

3. Person Required to Provide Private Health Insurance Coverage.

☐ The child support obligor already has private health insurance coverage for the child(ren) that is reasonable in cost.

☐ The child support obligor can obtain private health insurance coverage for the child(ren) that is reasonable in cost through an employer or other source.
☐ The child support obligee is a non-parent individual or agency that has no duty to provide medical support.
☐ Both parents wish to provide and already have private health insurance coverage in place or have private health insurance coverage available for the child(ren).

If both parents are providing private health insurance coverage for the minor child(ren), ☐ Plaintiff's/Petitioner 1's ☐ Defendant's/Petitioner 2's private health insurance coverage plan shall be considered the primary private health insurance coverage plan for the child(ren).

Should private health insurance coverage be cancelled for any reason, the parent ordered to maintain private health insurance coverage shall immediately notify the other parent of the cancellation.

C. Health Care Coverage Requirements

Within thirty (30) days after the issuance of this support order, the person required to provide health care coverage for the child(ren) must provide to the other parent or to the child support obligee information regarding the benefits, limitations, and exclusions of the coverage, copies of any forms necessary to receive reimbursement, payment or other benefits under the coverage, and a copy of any necessary proof of coverage.

Within thirty (30) days after the issuance of this order, the person required to provide health care coverage for the child(ren) shall provide to the Child Support Enforcement Agency documentation that verifies health care coverage is being provided as ordered.

The individual who is designated to be reimbursed for health care expenses for the child(ren) is:

Name: _____

The person required to provide health care coverage for the child(ren) shall designate the child(ren) as covered dependent(s) under any health care coverage policy, contract, or plan.

Pursuant to R.C. 3119.32(G), if the person required to obtain health care coverage for the child(ren) subject to this child support order obtains new employment, the agency shall comply with the requirements of R.C. 3119.34, which may result in the issuance of a notice requiring the new employer to take whatever action is necessary to enroll the children in private health care insurance coverage provided by the new employer, when insurance is not being provided by any other source.

FIFTH: CASH MEDICAL SUPPORT & CHILDREN'S HEALTH CARE EXPENSES

A. Liability for child(ren)'s Health Care Expenses

Extraordinary health care expenses are any uninsured health care expenses incurred for a child during a calendar year that exceed the total cash medical support amount owed by the parents during that year.

Each party shall have access to all health care records of the child(ren) as provided by law, or as otherwise limited in this document.

The term "health care expense" or "health care records" shall include, but not be limited to, medical, dental, orthodontic, optical, pharmaceutical, surgical, hospital, major medical, psychological, psychiatric, outpatient, doctor, therapy, counseling, prosthetic, and/or all other expenses/records including preventative health expenses/records related to the treatment of the human body and mind.

YOU ARE ORDERED TO COMPLETE THE WORKING TOGETHER FOR KIDS EDUCATIONAL SEMINAR. THERE IS NO COST TO THIS SEMINAR.

This educational programming is designed to assist never-married parents in learning about their rights and responsibilities as parents, and in improving their communication and parenting skills so that successful co-parenting plans can be created with minimal court intervention. This programming also gives the parties the opportunity to participate in free mediation services in an effort to help parents resolve their differences and develop a plan to co-parent their children.

This on-line educational programming is required and is most effective when both parents complete the seminar. The Working Together for Kids programming consists of an interactive video that can be completed at your convenience, but MUST be completed prior to your court hearing.

Please be advised that if the party filing the court action does not complete the programming, then the case will be dismissed. Failure of the non-moving party to complete the Seminar prior to the scheduled hearing date may also result in the imposition of appropriate sanctions including contempt of court proceedings, dismissal of counter-pleadings, additional court hearings and court costs and other court orders which may result in financial consequences to the party not in compliance.

If you would like to attempt to resolve disputed co-parenting issues without the need for litigation, you will be linked to free mediation services after completion of the seminar content. Mediation is voluntary and many parents find it helpful in communicating their ideas about co-parenting.

THINGS TO KNOW ABOUT MEDIATION

Mediation is a non-adversarial process whereby a neutral professional, trained to listen to parents and assist them in communication, will assist parents in reaching agreements regarding the child(ren) they must co-parent. Mediators are not lawyers.

Mediation is offered at NO COST during the Working Together for Kids Programming. If you continue through the court process and a judge or magistrate orders you to participate in mediation, then there is a fee.

Mediation is NOT a Court Order. However, if you come to an agreement through the Working Together for Kids mediation program, then your agreement will be submitted to your attorney (if you have one) for review, or to the court for approval. You are not bound by your agreement until it is reviewed by the court, made a part of the court orders, and is filed with the clerk of courts.

Mediation will take place at Stark County Family Court. Private rooms and security are provided. (The mediation coordinator may assist the parties with other mediation venues at her discretion.)

Mediation is VOLUNTARY. It is your choice to participate in mediation. Please keep in mind that someone will have to make decisions regarding your child(ren). Mediation allows parents to make decisions that are best for their child(ren). If parties decline mediation, then a hearing will be scheduled and professionals will make decisions for your family.

Issues discussed in mediation include: Who will be the primary residential parent, parenting time schedules including holidays, transportation, telephone contact, access to school, day care and health records, health care for the child(ren) and medical decision making. Please note that under Ohio law, co-parenting plans must contain a provision addressing child support.

- If an agreement is reached through mediation and neither parent is represented by counsel, the agreement will be forwarded to a magistrate who will review the agreement with both parents and issue court orders that day. No further court hearing will be required.
- If an agreement is reached through mediation and one or both parents have an attorney, then the mediated agreement will be mailed to attorney(s) for review. Attorneys will then follow up with their clients and submit an agreed entry to the court if the parties wish.
- If no agreement is reached, the parties will be required to return to court for formal court hearings.

Please view the Stark County Family Court's parenting time schedules prior to mediation to better understand how to schedule each parent's parenting time. Go to Starkcountyohio.gov/family-court and view the plans under the forms and links tab.
