Since you helped me so much, I thought you'd like to know how much the whole thing was appreciated. Bob Fiatal is the Director (Jessica's boss). Thanks for your help!

Jon and Chryssa,

Thank you again for your help in the Death Investigation class. I spoke with several students and they really enjoyed your presentations. I know you are both very busy, but I really appreciate you taking the time to share your experience with these investigators. As you know, there is a real need for this type of class.

Thanks again,

Jessica

PS: Jon, you left your notes on my desk. I will mail them to your office.
